REGISTRATION: 11:00 A.M. LUNCH/PROGRAM: NOON

ABOUT THE RECIPIENTS:

→ Illinois Speaker of the House, Michael J. Madigan has long been an ardent supporter of working class families, and especially the men and women who work in the union construction industry.

With Speaker Madigan's leadership, the state of Illinois has passed Capital and infrastructure funding bills, and legislation that has protected and bolstered Prevailing Wage laws. In addition, passage of bills that give the middle class a fighting chance has been the hallmark of his tenure. Among his legislative accomplishments are laws that have provided assistance to veterans, educational institutions, and people with disabilities. He has also been a champion for Misericordia and similar charitable organizations.

His staunch resistance of the current governor's persistence to formulate "Right-to-Work" (FOR LESS) ordinances and laws in Illinois is one of the many reasons why he was CISCO's choice for the Labor Advocate of the Year Award.

→ The Chicago Housing Authority (CHA) was chosen as the Public Body of the Year mainly due to the historic Project

Labor Agreement that was signed with the Chicago & Cook County Building Trades that provided recruitment opportunities for CHA residents into the building trades apprenticeship programs.

→ As part of its Pride in Construction Program, CISCO also selected an Educator of the Year, and the 2017 choice was Steve Schmidt, an Instructor with the Lake County High School Technology Campus in Grayslake.

There, Mr. Schmidt serves in the Construction Skills and Management Program. He has participated in many of CISCO's construction career events.
